

Get Seen. Get Connected. Get Ahead.

Become an ACWA Associate and gain exclusive access to California's water industry – including the latest policy updates, industry insights, and direct engagement with public water agency leaders. This gives your business a competitive edge to tailor your services and products to the real-time needs of water providers across the state.

WHY ACWA?

ACWA is the largest statewide association of public water agencies in the U.S., representing about 470 members that deliver 90% of California's water. Since 1910, ACWA has led on state water policy and driven progress in groundwater, safe drinking water, recycling, and more.
